

Land grab and traffic go hand in hand

The incredible traffic congestion in Los Angeles and the South Bay is due to how greedy developers have been allowed by city zoning boards to build a dozen or more condos or townhouses on every acre of land that becomes available. That won't change and the traffic will continue to worsen.

— JOHN ELMONT
Redondo Beach