

Mark Waronek just doesn't get it. The damage is done and his influence pedaling days are hopefully over as far as using public office to further himself and his clients. There were more people from Lomita signing the R-1 petition regarding Ponte Vista then voted for him in the his last election. That should speak volumes as far as his reelection chances go.

John Stinson
San Pedro