It now seems to appear that the opposition group Tom Field doesn't think really exists, in fact does exist?

And wouldn't you know it, this group that some folks don't believe really exists are having lawn signs and banners already being "removed" from many yards.

So an organization that folks don't think exists in the first place is having lawn signs disappear. Maybe all those lawn signs were just a figment of our imagination, in the first place and a person or persons just want us all to go back to the way it was when Bob blew into town?

Not gonna happen!

We're here
It's clear,
We ain't gonna take
No more Bisno "cheer".

Opponents roar
Over supporters sighs,
We ain't gonna listen to Anymore Bisno lies.

And every time
They make a gaff,
We all meet them with
A great big laugh.

I know Bob doesn't like
Our regular R1 chanting,
So it seems there are more of us
Who make elitist ranting.

Bob your current plan
At times seems funny.
But it is now time for you to hope away like a bunny.

When Linda "Bob Bisno is going to save San Pedro" D'Ambrosi
Said those words, not at a Hyatt,
We all laughed so hard
It was almost a comedy riot.

And to all would love laughing
To an ultimate height,
Come to the meeting on Thursday
And laugh to the DOT man named Mike.
